THE SOUTHERN INDEPENDENT

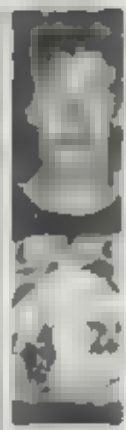

A person who's caring, a person who's kind
Should only be remembered with good thoughts in mind
A close friend who's caring, understanding, and dear Should always be close by, should always be near
Our close friend was care free, our close friend was here
Once walked beside us, once shared all our cheer
But now she is gone, she laughs here no more
She's gone to a new life, she went through that door
Her term was so short here, her dreams incomplete
So much more of life she had yet to meet
If there was an answer, a way we could try
We'd give her those treasures and moments denied
The wind blows softly, the wind blows weak
It sings a love song, it kisses a cheek
So what if our friend doesn't live anymore?
Should we give up on life, should we shut the door?
We still feel her presence, we still see her smile
The memories she gave us bring tears to our eyes
What would she say, would she want us to cry?
We wish we could ask her what it's like to die
She knows that we miss her, she misses us too
Our tears fall like raindrops, her tears morning dew
Morning still dawns, the birds still take flight
She'd want us to go on, to live on, to fight
So blow soft wind, blow sweet blow dear
Comfort our sorrows and dry every tear

We love you The Class of '80

The 1979-1980 Basketball Team Coach Granger, D. Adams, M. Morris, A. Adams, D. Thomas, D. Mellott, Manager, D. Sterner (Wilt), J. Castaldi, C. Bollinger, S. Sanders, T. Moul, D. Wagaman

The Granger Bunch. Here's a story of a bunch named Granger, who was a bunch of very special team. All of them had muscles like their daddies. The smallest one was Wilt. It's a story of some lonely cheerleaders, who were looking for a very special team. All of them had pep like their mommies and cheered for victory. Then on one day this coach met these cheerleaders and they knew that it was much more than a hunch, that this group must somehow form a family. That's the way we became the Granger Bunch. That's the way we became the Granger Bunch.

1979 MUSICAL

I'd much rather be playing basketball!

Don't be dismayed at good-byes. A farewell is necessary before we can meet again and meeting again after moments or lifetimes is the joy of life with friends.
